We are UTSA

When referencing the University of Texas at San Antonio Athletics, please use the acronym UTSA and the nickname Roadrunners. Please refrain from using UT-San Antonio, Texas-San Antonio, UT-SA or any other variation.

Last Time Out: UTSA used a balanced scoring attack to put away Texas-Pan American early in a 68-34 victory in the season opener for both teams on Friday night at the Convocation Center. The Roadrunners improved to 20-12 all-time in home openers and evened their season-opener mark to 16-16. Sophomore Kamra King led UTSA with 10 points, while junior Miki Turner and freshman Niaga Mitchell-Cole added eight apiece. Twelve of the 14 players who saw action got in the scoring column.

Scouting Concordia Texas: The Tornados are coming off a 23-5 campaign that included an 18-3 mark in American Southwest Conference play. Concordia Texas won the league a season ago and is picked to repeat, while senior guard Margaret Milling was selected as the American Southwest West Division Preseason Player of the Year before going down with an injury. Senior Paige Parrish is the team's top returning scorer after starting 25 of 28 games and averaging 6.5 points per contest. Head coach Rusty Rainbolt enters his third season at the school with a 37-15 record.

The Series: UTSA will face Concordia Texas for the first time in program history. The Tornados are one of seven teams (Austin Peay, William & Mary, San Francisco, Utah State, San Jose State and Seattle are the others) that the Roadrunners will see for the first time this season.

Opening Act: With its win on Friday, UTSA improved to 16-16 in season openers and 20-12 in home openers including marks of 5-8 (season) and 8-5 (home) under head coach Rae Rippetoe-Blair. Here is a look at UTSA's last five season-opening contests.

Date	Result	Location
Nov. 9, 2012	UTSA 68, Texas-Pan American 34	San Antonio
Nov. 11, 2011	Missouri 70, UTSA 50	San Antonio
Nov. 12, 2010	UTSA 79, Our Lady of the Lake 66	San Antonio
Nov. 13, 2009	Texas 71, UTSA 60	Austin, Texas
Nov. 14, 2008	UTSA 85, Texas A&M International 53	San Antonio

Getting Defensive: In Friday's win, UTSA held Texas-Pan American to just 19-percent shooting for the contest and forced 23 turnovers. The 34 points scored by the Broncos was the fewest in the series that dates back to 1982. Texas-Pan American scored 36 points twice in losses (Jan. 10, 1986 and Feb. 21, 1987) for its previous low. It also marked the fewest points that the Roadrunners have allowed since an 86-32 win over Schreiner on Nov. 15, 2009, which also was the home opener that season.

Exhibit A: UTSA defeated McMurry 64-36 on Nov. 3 in its lone exhibition game of the season. Senior Simone Young paced the team with 13 points and five assists, while sophomore Kamra King finished with 11 points. The Roadrunners held the War Hawks to 19-percent shooting in the game, including just 13.8-percent in the second half. UTSA used a 12-0 run over the final 2:24 of the first half to break open a close game. All four newcomers made their debut in the contest, with junior Miki Turner earning the start at point guard. Freshmen Niaga Mitchell-Cole, Akunna Elonu and Mathilde Hergott all came off the bench. The group was led by Mitchell-Cole, who finished with nine points, seven rebounds, four assists, three blocks and a steal.

A New Home: UTSA officially joined the Western Athletic Conference (WAC) on July 1, 2012, after accepting an invitation on Nov. 11, 2010. The Roadrunners are part of a 10-team basketball league that includes Denver, Idaho, Louisiana Tech, New Mexico State, San Jose State, Seattle, Utah State and former Southland Conference rivals Texas State and UT Arlington. UTSA, which started athletics in 1981-82, had been a member of the Southland since 1991-92 and the Trans America Athletic Conference (now Atlantic Sun) for five years prior to that.

Coaching Milestone: UTSA head coach Rae Rippetoe-Blair hit a pair of milestones in her 12th season with the Roadrunners. On Nov. 18, 2011, UTSA defeated FIU for Rippetoe-Blair's 300th career victory and she reached 200 wins with the program on Feb. 22, 2012, in the Roadrunners' 72-58 triumph over Texas A&M-Corpus Christi. Additionally, Rippetoe-Blair finished her tenure in the Southland Conference with 136 league wins. Only Northwestern State's James Smith (1987-2004) earned more wins (340) and conference victories (210), while coaching in the circuit.

A New York: Senior Whitney York returns after missing the last two seasons with an injury. The Bryan native was granted a sixth season of eligibility after being injured following UTSA's 80-57 exhibition win over McMurry last year. York enters the season at No. 19 on the Roadrunners' all-time scoring charts with 798 points in 70 games. She needs just 202 points to become the 13th player in program history to reach the 1,000-point plateau and needs 325 points to become one of the top-10 scorers in school annals. Her career average of 11.4 ppg leads all returners.

Wright Stuff: Senior Whitney Wright has collected 300 rebounds in 85 games to rank 33rd on UTSA's all-time charts. The Springer, Okla., native pulled down a career-high 165 boards (5.7 rpg) last year, including 43 offensive rebounds and 122 on the defensive end. She needs just 43 rebounds to reach the top 25 and 136 boards to climb to the top 15. In addition, Wright recorded 48 blocks, which was the fifth-highest single-season total in program history. She is seventh on UTSA's all-time blocks list with 67 and can reach the top five with just four swats.

From Downtown: The duo of Kamra King and Ashley Spaletta proved to be a potent one from behind the arc last season as the freshmen combined to produce 73 of UTSA's 108 makes (67.6-percent). Spaletta's 40 3-pointers were the most by a UTSA freshman since Jordan Stark hit 56 during the 2007-08 season.

Home Cookin': UTSA will play seven of its first 10 games at home in the Convocation Center this season, including three consecutive to start the regular season. After hosting the Tornados on Monday, the Roadrunners will welcome former Southland foe Texas A&M-Corpus Christi (Nov. 16) to the Alamo City before their first road trip, which is to Wichita State on Nov. 18. In all, the 2012-13 slate features 16 home contests.

A three-time Southland Conference Coach of the Year, Rae Rippetoe-Blair is in her 13th season at UTSA.

During her 12 seasons at the helm, the Ardmore, Okla., native has guided the Roadrunners to a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances (2008-09), back-to-back Southland Conference Tournament Championships in 2008-09, a pair of Southland Regular Season Titles (2003/'09) and consecutive 20-win seasons in 2007-08 and '08-09, including a school-record 24 in 2008-09.

Since her hiring in 2000, she helped transform the Roadrunners into one of the top programs in the Southland. Rippetoe-Blair led UTSA to 11 Southland Tournament appearances, including four trips to the conference finals (2003/'06/'08/'09). During the 2004-05 season, she became the winningest basketball coach in UTSA history. She currently has 200 victories (only women's coach at UTSA with more than 150) and her .557 winning percentage is second-best in school annals.

Rippetoe-Blair has mentored several outstanding student-athletes during her time at UTSA, including 2008-09 Southland Conference Player of the Year and Defensive Player of the Year Monica Gibbs, who is currently playing overseas (Amicale Steesel). She has coached four Southland Newcomers of the Year (Nikki Hendrix 2002/Dewella Holiday 2003/Vivian Ewalefo 2006/Onika Anderson 2008), two Southland Freshmen of the Year (Richelle Parks 2005/Monica Gibbs 2006), 25 All-Southland selections (seven first-teamers), two Southland Student-Athletes of the Year (Nicole Dunson 2005/Ryba Pawlaczyk 2009), four Southland All-Academic selections and a pair of CoSIDA Academic All-District honorees.

Rippetoe-Blair has an overall record of 307-203 (60.2 percent) in 17 seasons as a head coach. The Roadrunners have averaged 16.6 wins per season during her tenure.

Last season, Rippetoe-Blair became the first coach in program history to amass 200 wins, while earning her 300th overall. Both milestones were achieved in front of the home crowd with wins against FIU (300th overall) and Texas A&M-Corpus Christi (200th at UTSA). Under her tutelage, Kamra King led the team in points and was the conference's top-scoring freshman. Sophomore Judy Jones was second on the team in scoring and was named honorable mention all-conference.

Rippetoe-Blair's teams have been ranked among the best defensive teams in the country. UTSA was ranked in the top six nationally in scoring defense in 2002-03 and was second in the nation in her first two seasons (2000-01 and 2001-02).

While the immediate impact Blair had on the UTSA's program might be a surprise, the success should not be. A proven winner as a head coach at NAIA Phillips University and as an assistant at Oklahoma State, she has enjoyed continued success.

Rippetoe-Blair turned around a Phillips program with a 104-51 mark during her five seasons in Enid, Okla. She was named the Sooner Athletic Conference's 1989-90 Coach of the Year after a 29-7 record.

Prior to UTSA, Rippetoe-Blair was an assistant coach at her alma mater, Oklahoma State, for eight seasons. As a player, she left her mark to this day on the Cowgirls program, ranking in the top 20 in five categories.

As an assistant coach, she helped build Oklahoma State as one of the top programs in the Big Eight Conference and made valuable contacts among high school coaches. Her pipeline to Oklahoma has brought former Texas Tech recruit Nikki Hendrix, and former standouts Lacy Mingee and Katie Sandefur to San Antonio. Rippetoe-Blair continued to bring excellent recruits from the state of Oklahoma with the 2008-09 All-America candidate and Southland's Player of the Year and league's Defensive Player to the Year Monica Gibbs from Stillwater, Okla.

Rippetoe-Blair started her coaching career in 1985 as an assistant coach at Southern Nazarene in Bethany, Okla. She was at SNU for two seasons before moving to Phillips. After two rebuilding seasons at Phillips, Rippetoe-Blair coached three straight 20-win teams. Phillips went 29-7 in 1989-90, as Rippetoe-Blair earned conference coach of the year honors. In 1990-91, Phillips was 23-8 and 20-9 in her final season before returning to Oklahoma State.

As an Ardmore (Okla.) High School athlete, she ran on the 1980 state champion mile relay team, played on the 1980 Oklahoma-Texas All-Star team and was an all-state pick in track and basketball. She was the team's MVP in softball and was named the outstanding female Athlete of the Year for Ardmore High.

She and her husband, Craig, reside in Boerne, Texas.
